

Mata Katyayani

The side form of Mother Dugs, is known as Koltgogon, who is worshipped on the six day of Noverset. The agend behind her ranne goes that. Once upon a time, there was a great sage called Kota, who had a son needed Kota, Kota was very femous and recovered in the fireage of earlier. He underwent long austreties and personne in order to receive the grace of the Mother Opddess. He wished to have a daughter in the form of a goodses. According to his wish and desire the Mether Opddess granted his request. Kalyagaria was born to Kata as an exists of Durgs.

The world meanwhile was reeling under the cruellice of the demon Mahimbasur. The great Goddess was appealed to by the trinity of Brahma, Voltmu and Shir. Born on the fourth Neinrites, the goddess accepted the ritual worship of the sage Katyayan for three days and on the tenth day Durgs killed the demon Mahimbasur.

She is the harbinger of blessings and fulfiller of desires. She is depicted as a four armed goodses satiride a long energy that the Goddess Durgs will release in another guite to defeat the renowy.

Katayayani is the gathering and focusing of that Ad Shadi in a form that is comprehensible to mortals As a potent force and facet of the female energy, Katyayani claims as her own the Ajan or Ages Chalon. Symbolised by a loba with two petals, this chalon is also known as the first days chalon. As a implicit from the name the third eye is focus point of a concentration of energy that is traditionally released with terrible impact. But in times of lesser peril, the third eye is a concentration point of termendous power and energy.
